

I had a dream last night, here's what happened

Mike Huckabee, Mitt Romney, Fred and Jerri Thompson, and Rudy Guliani got on a plane to the Reagan Ranch, they left on August 5 and requested a meeting with Sarah Palin.

In that meeting, they said to SP

"we need to take back this country, and we're willing to sacrifice our own personal goals for the goals of the country.

"we're sorry what this nation has done to you, and we will do whatever it takes to fix this country

"we will support you if you wish to run for President, and we will not let you down

"Huck here, he's got the evangelicals

"Mitt here, he's got the business people

"Fred here, he's got Hollywood

"Jerri, she's got the women. She said she's got a few others willing to help too.

"Rudy, he's got NYC

At that point, Sarah Palin left the room to be alone for a moment. She was not able to hold back the tears. She got down on her knees, praised God, then repented of her sins, and then thanked God for all that he had done.

Todd came into the room and put his arm around Sarah. He said "Wow, why did they all fly out here today?"

Sarah said, "Todd, it looks like the Lord has chosen me. I told Him I would go where he leads me, and now these honorable men are here to support me. What do you think?"

Todd then said, "Well, what is your heart saying?"

Sarah said, "I cannot believe I have been brought here for such a time as this. But if these men are willing to back me, I'm willing to serve Him now for this nation."

At that point Todd said, "Sarah, let's pray".

They both got down on their knees and Todd prayed: "Thank you Lord for all that you've done and are about to do."

Then Sarah got up, wiped away her tears, freshened up the lipstick, re-entered the room and said.

"Hell yeah, let's roll".

A day later, Newt Gingrich and Haly Barbour found out what was going on, flew out to Calif on Aug 7, and met with Sarah and said Newt said

"we're with you too. We checked our egos at the door and want to do whatever it takes to take back this country. We support you."

Haley Barbour nodded his head in comforting agreement.
